TO: The Honorable Commissioner of Patents
and Trademarks
Post Office Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

Applicants have determined via Public Pairs that the above-identified application was abandoned on June 29, 2007 for failure to respond to an Advisory Action letter dated April 6, 2007. The Advisory Letter states that the response to the November 20, 2006 Final Office Action ("the Response") filed by Applicants on March 17, 2007 would not be entered as it raised new issues that would have to be searched. The Notice of Abandonment letter states that Applicants failed to make a proper reply to the Advisory Action.

Contrary to the assertion of the Patent Office, Applicants did file a response via the U.S. Postal Service on May 20, 2007 by virtue of their submission of an RCE requesting that the Response be entered. A copy of the Request for Continued Examination (RCE) Transmittal filed on this case on May 20, 2007 is submitted herewith along with a copy of a stamped postcard receipt.

The stamped postcard receipt indicates the RCE was not received promptly after mailing, as the delay was in excess of one month's time from the date of mailing. Applicants' attorney personally mailed the RCE request from the U.S. Post Office branch in Glendale, AZ addressed properly to the USPTO. Applicants' attorney, the undersigned, knows no reason why the transmittal of the RCE paper took so long to be received by the USPTO. However, a response was in fact filed in this case.

The Commissioner is respectfully requested to withdraw the holding of abandonment in this application, and enter the Response for further examination as to patentability.

Please address all future correspondence to the undersigned attorney at:

6136 West Kimberly Way
Glendale, AZ 85308

Respectfully submitted,

Thomas A. Beck
